

Mark Twain National Forest

Missouri

Berryman Recreation Area

Eastern Region, USDA Forest Service

February 6, 2012.

Highlights

Located at the site of 1930's Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC) Camp of the same name, this quiet recreation area is the starting point for the 24 mile Berryman National Recreation Trail. The western section of the trail also serves as part of the Courtois Section of the Ozark Trail. Horses are allowed in this Recreation Area.

Trail

The Berryman Trail traverses 24 miles of scenic Ozark countryside and is open for hiking, equestrian and mountain bike use. Bike riders must yield the right-of-way when encountering horseback riders. Tying horses directly to trees is prohibited but hitching posts are available.

Picnicking

There are five picnic sites available, each with a table and pedestal grill. A pavilion with large "rustic" grill is also available on a first come-first served basis.

Camping

There are 8 single sites, each with a table, fire ring and lantern post. Some sites have hitching rails. Please scatter manure outside the site.

Facilities

Centrally located vault toilets. No drinking water. No trash service: pack-it-in, pack-it-out. Open all year.
